Comments about our Women's Camps from past participants:

"The instructor's positive, friendly attitude makes us want to follow her anywhere. Her feedback always has a positive note – no matter what."

"The seminar could not have been better. Next year I am bringing my friends."

"I chose to come to Breck's camp because I believed it would offer very personal ski instruction with the added bonus of a quaint Victorian/western town, high quality restaurants and shops and warm hospitality. I was not disappointed."
